

The New Schoolteacher

1. How is the pioneer classroom similar and different to our classroom?

2. What skills did a school teacher need in early settler times? Are they different skills than teachers now need?

---

---

---

---

---

3. An important part of early settler children's school was cursive writing and neatness. Use your best cursive writing to write your name and the date in the space next to the cursive alphabet (Uppercase bottom/ lower case on top).

